Linoleums, Etc. These departments come forward to-morrow with some of the greatest values

they have been able to offer this season. We foresaw an early demand for these goods, and went to the largest manufacturers and importers when business ness was at its lowest ebb and made offers for entire lots, which we secured at our own figures. The result is that we are able to offer standard high-class goods below the first cost of munufacture. The strongest argument we can make is to ask you to compare our prices and qualities with those shown
